

December 17, 2017 * Above photo: This is my dear old friend Kathleen Kerndt making sure our old friends are not forgotten this Christmas. Kathleen is a former AF Captain, daughter of a highly decorated WWII Army Air Corps bomber pilot and now a senior civilian adviser to National Guard HQ. She was part of yesterday's "Wreath's Across America" event at Arlington. When she got to Arlington, she pinged me for the memorial site #, then made a point of going by to visit the fella's of Baron 52 and, bless her heart, personally placing their Christmas wreath, have a little chat, shared her thoughts and Christmas prayers. Thought you guys might appreciate the story and pic.
