Coordinator, Goodfellow AFB EC-47 Airborne Radio Finding Exhibit History Exhibit

Dear Mr. Nurre

I received your offer of a gift, dated 16 June 2014, by which you offer to give to the Air Force an EC-47 Airborne Radio Direction Finding (ARDF) History Exhibit, including photographs, documents, artifacts, plaques, headsets, uniforms and other items representing the history of the USAF Security Service ARDF operations in support of the Vietnam War 1966-1974. The exhibit will be used in conjunction with current historical static displays at Goodfellow Air Force Base, Texas. The display combines artifacts of historical significance provided by Maximum Recovery in Southeast Asia to an exhibit construct by Adler Display. The gift has a value of $24,850. The display was recently installed in the headquarters building of 17 TRW.

By authority of the Secretary of the Air Force, and pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2601, I accept with pleasure your gift of the ARDF History Exhibit.

Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Sincerely

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Leonard A. Patrick", is written over a light blue circular stamp. The signature is fluid and cursive.
